

Executive Assistant-Peering – (Contract: 2 years further extendable as per performance.)

Location: New Delhi

Executive Assistant-Peering will be required to identify and drive network solutions to improve interconnection at NIXI Exchange points.

Responsibilities:

- Manage company's interaction with CDNs, Content Players and DC providers.
- Drive successful onboarding of CDNs, Content Players, Utility players at each IX Location.
- Identify, develop and maintain healthy working relationships with peering managers at ISPs, Telecom companies and CDNs.
- Understand NIXI peering policy and act as brand ambassador across peering platforms.
- Manage the optimization of interconnection topology for service price and quality improvement.
- Contribute to internal technical and business discussions and provide solution recommendations for network planning.

Education and Experience

- 3+ years' experience within the ISP/networking industry, specific to peering and interconnection.
- Experience or good understanding of a Content Delivery Network (CDN)
- Experience working with core network technologies (BGP, MPLS, IPV4/IPV6, etc)
- Technical/Engineering degree/B.E/B.Tech
- Extensive working knowledge of network infrastructure
- Ability to analyze flow data and work with other network planning tools

Personal skills

- Strong attention to detail
- Strong organizational skills.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Highly motivated self-starter
- Ability to handle multiple projects and tasks
- Strong ability to learn and improve
- Ability to be autonomous

Remuneration not a constraint for suitable candidates.

Share resume at dhananjay@nixi.in